

The Ottawa
Hospital
Foundation | La Fondation
de l'Hôpital
d'Ottawa

THE White
Coat
QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

LE BULLETIN SEMESTRIEL DES

*Blouses
blanches*

Welcome to the inaugural edition of The White Coat Quarterly!

The ones who wear the White Coat at The Ottawa Hospital take on complicated illnesses and life-threatening traumas every day.

Our Hospital is fortunate to have the support of dozens of wonderful workplaces – like yours – who support these people in white coats, as well as fundraise for life-saving equipment and research through the White Coat Campaign.

The White Coat Quarterly is all about you. It will celebrate your successes and the latest accomplishments of your workplaces, inform you of upcoming events and activities and introduce you to some of your peers, who have the same goal of building a better hospital for us all. Feel proud – you are a part of something big.

Thank you for being part of the annual White Coat Campaign!

The Ottawa Hospital Foundation recently recognized the employees of NAV CANADA for their years of support and dedication.

What's going on?

Spring has sprung at The Ottawa Hospital! The campaign has seen a lot of activity.

- Last month marked two inaugural campaigns – while Mr. Lube's campaign kicked off at three locations across the region in support of The Ottawa Hospital Cancer Centre, MDS Aero launched and wrapped up their successful campaign.
- The Ottawa Hospital Foundation recently recognized the employees of NAV CANADA for their years of support and dedication by naming a waiting area of The Ottawa Hospital Cancer Centre in their honour. The company is gearing up to launch their 2011 employee campaign next month.
- This month, the Foundation will recognize the success of The Colonnade Group's Colonnade Challenge at a special event, where a waiting room at The Ottawa Hospital Cancer Centre will be named for them.

Thank you to Mr. Lube, MDS Aero, NAV CANADA and The Colonnade Group for your efforts!

Introducing... The White Coat Campaign Committee!

Gallium President and CEO Ranald McGillis is the Chair of The White Coat Campaign Committee. Members include Dave Allum of Innovapost; Tyler Burns of Wi-LAN Inc.; Rudy Kellar of NAV CANADA; Carol Laidlaw of Laidlaw Financial; business consultant Chris Loney; Chris Pogue of General Dynamics and Bruce Wolfgram of Primecorp Realty.

"I'm pleased and honoured to be working alongside these committed individuals to help bring the very best care possible to The Ottawa Hospital," McGillis said.

The committee is always looking to extend its reach into other businesses and sectors of the Ottawa business community. If you're interested in being a part of the committee, please contact Ranald or Heather McLean, Vice-President of Annual Giving Programs at The Ottawa Hospital Foundation.

Ranald McGillis, Chair of The White Coat Campaign Committee

Did you know?

The Ottawa Hospital receives 579 Emergency Department visits every day. That's one patient every two minutes.

We support

GENERAL

CIVIC

RIVERSIDE

Ottawa Hospital Research Institute

OHRI

IRHO

Institut de recherche de l'Hôpital d'Ottawa